

One day, all the music will be free.

Until then, download music and movies legally.

The average out-of-court settlement with the RIAA is $3,000 to $5,000. That's more than most students can afford. What would you give up for "free" music?

35 UC Santa Cruz students received settlement letters last year. Don't be next. Illegal distribution of copyrighted materials may subject you to criminal and civil penalties.
